NEW TARIFF LEGISLATION ONLY PART OF PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.—A busy session was in prospect for congress when it reconvened yesterday. Deliberations may run well into the summer without even a halt for the national conventions. With the Russian treaty abrogated, the pension bill and a general deficiency appropriations bill out of the way in the house tariff legislation is expected as soon as the ways and means committee can send out the revised schedules. The iron and steel schedules will probably come first—it is expected within ten days.

Tariff legislation, however, is by no means all on the legislative program, for the heads of many important committees are certain to exert pressure for the consideration of important bills. Anti-trust and labor legislation and the revision of statutes relating to injunctions will be pressed by the judiciary committee. Panama canal legislation will be urged by the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, the member of which have just returned from a three weeks' inspection of the canal zone.

The rules committee has under consideration important matters including the proposed investigations of the money trust, the shipping combine and the so-called "Harvester" trust. This committee contemplates recommending the appointment of a joint committee to conduct a broad inquiry into all three subjects.

Investigations into the United States Steel Corporation, and the sugar situation will be resumed next week. Each inquiry is expected to result in important recommendations. The committee on foreign affairs will press legislation affecting treaties with foreign nations and the committee on expenditures in various departments is also planning to renew its work with vigor for the purpose of recommending economies. Many other matters will be considered, among the most important being appropriations which the democrats have in control for the first time in 16 years.

The tariff program will probably be considered in a caucus of house democrats soon. The wool bill has been postponed until the full report of the tariff board can be digested. Meanwhile the iron, steel, chemical and sugar schedules are to be considered by the committee on ways and means and the food schedules will be taken up later.

ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS INSTALL LAST NIGHT

Last evening at Pythian hall there was a large assemblage of members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah orders to witness the joint installation of officers of Belmont lodge, No. 24, and Desert Queen Rebekah lodge, No. 22, I. O. O. F. Besides the members there were present 60 invited guests to witness the beautiful ceremonies.

Noble Grand A. G. Larsen installed the following officers of Belmont lodge: A. G. Larsen, noble grand; Hiram Bilyeu, vice grand; Lewis Ross, secretary, and Robert H. Dalzell, treasurer.

Miss George Bennett, noble grand of Desert Queen Rebekah lodge installed the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: Mrs. Ella Brann, vice grand; Mrs. Winnie Hudson, secretary, and Mrs. Rose Wiley, treasurer.

After the conclusions of the installation ceremonies a delicious banquet was served the guests and members of both orders, 150 people occupying seats at the tables. During the evening a musical program was rendered which called forth many applause and encores.

Dancing was the order of the remaining part of the evening, after the banquet tables had been removed, and this amusement was continued until 2 a. m.

Both of the Odd Fellows' orders in Tonopah are growing rapidly in membership and the year 1912 promises to be a record-breaker in Tonopah in the number of new members.

KELLY BROTHERS RECEIVE SAD NEWS

Last evening the Kelly Brothers, of the Belmont bar, received a cable message from their mother in Cornwall, England, giving the sad news of the death of their beloved father, who died of paralysis yesterday morning. The deceased was 71 years old Christmas day. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and daughter, who were at his bedside when the summons came, and two sons, Fred and Albert, of this city. The funeral will be held at Cornwall, England, on Saturday next, when the remains will be laid alongside of a son, who passed away about three months ago.

OUT FOR THE DOUGH.
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—Robt. G. Fowler's transcontinental flight from Los Angeles to New York has been abandoned. Fowler expects to make exhibition flights along the coast.

FIRST DAY OF TEACHERS' INSTITUTE WELL ATTENDED

Large Number of Teachers In Tonopah From Various Sections of the State--Tomorrow's Program.

The first day of the teachers' institute of the Fifth supervision district, Tonopah district is being held at Pythian hall, the institute convening at 10 o'clock this morning. The perfecting of the organization meeting was completed at 3:30 p. m. today. The officers of the institute, President John Edwards Bray, superintendent of public instruction, and Vice President B. G. Bleasdale, deputy superintendent, are not present. Vice President S. H. Thompson, superintendent of public schools of Goldfield, called the institute to order, and after a few appropriate remarks, called for a report of all committees at 2 p. m. Owing to the lateness of the arrival of the train from Reno, which did not reach this city until 2 o'clock this afternoon, but little has been accomplished. Professor Allison Ware, president of the Chico State Normal, and Miss Alice Day, College of Education, University of Nevada, who were to deliver lectures, will have to be advanced to the top of tomorrow's program.

There are many noted instructors in attendance at the institute who will read valuable papers of vast information to the teachers. The public is cordially invited to the sessions tomorrow and Saturday.

Tonight at the Presbyterian church President Allison Ware of Chico Normal school, will deliver a free lecture on the subject: "Patriotism in a Republic." Everybody is invited to attend this lecture.

JACK MANEY DIES AT HAWTHORNE

Word has just been received in this city of the death of Jack Maney, which occurred in Hawthorne on December 24. There were fewer men better known in this southern section than Jack Maney. He was a pioneer of Bodie and Hawthorne and for years followed mining, at one time being possessed of considerable wealth. He was a pioneer resident of Tonopah, Goldfield and Bullfrog. In this city he was one of the first peace officers, later going to Bullfrog. Jack Maney was that type of man, when possessed of wealth and health, that lived to aid and do good for others; no persons ever needed aid long if it was made known to Maney. His friendship spelled the whole alphabet with him; there was no sham. He was buried on Christmas day at Hawthorne under the auspices of Esmeralda lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which lodge he was a member. Peace to his ashes.

MUCH ACTIVITY AT SILVER BOW

Late arrivals from Silver Bow report that the old camp is not yet abandoned, but the work on the different properties the past year and the annual work for 1911, which has all been completed, with few exceptions, shows that better work and more developments have been made than ever before in the history of the camp.

The new year starts off well. Sale was completed yesterday whereby C. W. Gilton takes over all the interests of J. J. Clark at Silver Bow. The deed was signed on the third inst. This will probably be the beginning of more sales to follow on other properties. Mr. Gilton has been at work since last April, having interested eastern capitalists, who hold interests with him.

The Catlin Silver Bow Mining company has the most development in the camp. Much ore is on the dump and a great deal blocked out and in sacks. The Silver Bow Belle has a good showing and the Clifford property has cut a good body of ore in their tunnel.

The Blue Horse has developed some more good ore on their property. The men working for J. Grant Crumley have done good work. A shaft of 50 feet has been

WOULD LEGALIZE GREAT COMBINATIONS OF CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.—The mere breaking up of large combinations into a number of smaller parts by no means meets the whole trust question," says Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor, in his annual report transmitted yesterday to President Taft.

Secretary Nagel declares that the Sherman law has been proved to be an effective statute beyond all doubt and that a degree of combination of capital is quite necessary, but he adds that the supreme court decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases have demonstrated that the next step in the control of great industrial corporations will be the creation of a permanent federal agency.

"A certain degree of combination of capital is admittedly essential to the carrying on of our great business enterprises," says Secretary Nagel. "To control properly such necessary combinations we must have some administrative federal office or commission which shall make this work its business."

"We must have a permanent authority which shall by steady and continuous supervision and publicity safeguard the public interests and at the same time allow full scope for necessary and proper business efficiency and development."

Positive Regulation.
The decisions of the supreme court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases have brought forcibly to the public attention a fact repeatedly presented in the reports of this department—the imperative need for the positive administrative regulation of great industrial corporations.

The recent decisions and reorganizations which followed have made it clear that another imperative step remains to be taken and that this is the establishment, by appropriate legislation, of a board system of supervision and publicity for all those industrial and commercial organizations engaged in interstate and international business.

RAILROAD COMMISSION PROTESTS AGAINST HOOK

RENO, Jan. 4.—Anticipating the nomination of Judge Hook to the supreme bench, the Nevada railroad commission has wired Nevada's senators and congressmen asking them to oppose confirmation of the nomination.

The resolution strongly urges the nomination of Franklin K. Lane, or, if not, it says some other broadly progressive man, in sympathy with the people, and not with special interests, should be named.

"We are authoritatively informed," the message reads in part, "that Judge Hook's sympathies are all with the public service corporations in the matter of their regulation. No man should be placed on the bench at this time whose views on this all-important point are open to the smallest doubt."

Opposition to Judge Hook, it was learned from one of the commissioners, is based largely upon his decision in the Oklahoma rate case now on appeal to the supreme court.

sunk and much more development work has been done by the men engaged on that property. On the Nevada Silver the tunnel is in low grade ore. A force of men are working on the Le Roy. On the Blazier group the work is not quite completed. On the Jennie K. or famous "Shotgun," now owned by Captain Gilton and others, a good ledge of $29 ore was struck and much other good work is being done in the camp.

With capital interested and a proper mill at Silver Bow, we may yet have a sister camp. That Tonopah, and Nye county, may be proud of, and the men who have stood so faithfully by Silver Bow may yet reap the reward that is justly due them. We look for more encouraging reports in the very near future.

merical organizations engaged in interstate and international business Federal Supervision.
"Whether this shall be done by means of federal incorporation or by a federal office or commission exercising powers of regulation and supervision may be a secondary question. The first consideration appears to be the establishment of permanent administrative publicity, regulation and supervision. The time is peculiarly ripe for such action. Public opinion and the views of many corporation managers are as one."

Secretary Nagel recommends that the bureau of corporations be developed to take up the form of supervision he suggests. It would be but a logical expansion of the bureau's operations and policy, which he says, have relied so on publicity for the last eight years and have demonstrated beyond question what a system of permanent supervision can do.

Immigration Laws.
In connection with the immigration service, Secretary Nagel recommends amendments to the immigration laws which tend to relieve immigrants of undue hardship without letting down the bars against undesirable. Larger discretion should be lodged with officials, he thinks, to admit unfortunate members of incoming families where it is shown that society would be protected against burden and danger. He recommends also that examinations of immigrants be made before they embark for this country and that the time for deporting confessed criminals be extended.

One of the greatest operations of the year, in Secretary Nagel's department, was the completion of the thirteenth census.

A very important investigation on the cost of living is now being carried on by the bureau of labor. "The report promises to provide a basis for intelligent discussion of this much mooted question," says the secretary.

PACKING HOUSES THREATENED BY A CONFLAGRATION

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Fire broke out last night for the second time in the packing house buildings of Swift & Co., in the heart of the Union Stock yards, adjoining the scene of the disastrous stock yards fire of a few years ago, threatened the whole Swift plant and many adjoining structures.

The first blaze did about $250,000 damage to the warehouse. Last night's fire, fanned by a cold wind, drove the firemen back and made certain a large loss. The fire started in the smokehouse, a long five-story brick building, and spread to an adjoining warehouse. Fire brands, blown by the wind, endangered adjoining buildings.

The blaze started within half a block of the building where one year ago Fire Marshal Horan and 24 of his men went to their deaths beneath the ruins of the Morris Co. warehouse. Early estimates of the loss are from $400,000 to $500,000.
